

COMMUNITY RELATIONS POLICY

Energold Drilling Corp. recognizes that development, control and management of effective Community Relations is essential to the Company's current and future success. We acknowledge that we have clear responsibility towards our host communities and we are committed to being a good neighbour. It is the policy of Energold Drilling Corp. to build a workable relationship borne out of respect for the fundamental human rights of its employees, contractors and communities in which it operates.

To fulfill this commitment we will:

- Recognize that each community is unique.
- Welcome open and honest dialogue with all groups affected by our activities.
- Listen to community needs and expectations and respond to them in timely and respectful manner.
- Respect the traditional rights of indigenous peoples.
- Contribute to the economic well being of host communities through the employment and training of local residents and support of local businesses.
- Safeguard and, where possible, enhance local social well being.
- Ensure that our activities are compliant with local laws and regulations.
- Recognize that values, standards and practices of some communities are different to ours and adapt our work to fit in the community where possible.
- Treat any complaint from local residents, businesses or community groups as a complaint from our client, because we know that our performance and presentation on site is a reflection of our client.

The Community Relations Policy is a procedural policy whereby staff at all levels share responsibility in carrying out all its requirements.

This Policy will be reviewed annually to monitor its effectiveness and to ensure that it reflects changing needs and circumstances.
